

With 6,500 employees in research, teaching and administration and its unique profile, TU Dortmund University shapes prospects for the future: the interaction between engineering and natural sciences as well as social and cultural studies drives both technological innovations and progress in knowledge and methodology. It is not only the roughly 33,400 students who benefit from this.

At the Institute for Social Pedagogy, Adult Education and Pedagogy in Early Childhood, the Department of Educational Sciences and Psychology of TU Dortmund University is seeking to fill the position of a commencing as soon as possible. The successful candidate will specialize in research and teaching in the field of pedagogy in early childhood.

Professor (Open Rank: W3 or W2) „Pedagogy in early childhood“

TU Dortmund University is seeking an outstanding individual and established scientist in the field of pedagogy in childhood, especially early childhood or in the field of early childhood education research with relevant international publications in recognized venues, including those with peer-review.

Beyond this, for the W3 professorship, the candidates are expected to have a continuous international publication record at a high level as well as a high visibility of the scientific achievements in the last five years. Both in regard to content and methodology, the compatibility with the research interests of the department is expected.

Applicants should contribute to interdisciplinary collaborative research projects within and outside TU Dortmund University. Applicants for the W3 professorship are distinguished by their integration into leading international research networks.

Experience in raising or applying for third-party funds is expected. Applicants for the W3 professorship can already demonstrate success in independent raising of competitive third-party funding, including joint projects.

An appropriate contribution to the department's curriculum is expected.

The successful candidate will possess social and leadership skills and be willing to be involved in academic self-governance.

The recruitment requirements are based on § 36 and § 37 HG NRW (law governing universities in NRW).

TU Dortmund University strives to increase the number of women in academic research and teaching and therefore strongly encourages women to apply.

TU Dortmund University is an equal opportunity employer and gives preference to candidates with disabilities if equally qualified.

TU Dortmund University supports the compatibility of work and family life and promotes gender mainstreaming in the university community.
