With 6,500 employees in research, teaching and administration and its unique profile, TU Dortmund University shapes prospects for the future. The interaction between engineering and natural science as well as social and cultural studies drives both technological innovations and progress in knowledge and methodology. It is not only the roughly 33,400 students who benefit from this.

The Department of Humanities and Theology comprises the Institutes of Protestant Theology and Catholic Theology as well as a joint Institute of Philosophy and Political Science. There is an interdisciplinary focus on teaching and research in the field of “Religion and Politics” with special emphasis on philosophical references.

The Department of Humanities and Theology at TU Dortmund University is seeking to fill the position of a commencing as soon as possible. The successful candidate will specialize in research and teaching in the field of “Practical Philosophy with a focus on Challenges of New Technologies”.

Professor (W1) with W2 tenure track in “Practical Philosophy with a focus on Challenges of New Technologies”

TU Dortmund University is seeking an individual with an outstanding and relevant doctorate in philosophy and with national and international publications in recognized venues, including those with peer-review in the field of practical philosophy, especially ethics and philosophical issues of new technologies.

Willingness in raising third-party funds is expected.

Applicants should complement the research activities of the department and contribute to interdisciplinary collaborative research projects within and outside the Institute of Philosophy and Political Science and TU Dortmund University.

An adequate contribution to the department’s curriculum is expected.

The successful candidate possesses social and leadership skills and is willing to participate in academic self-governance.

The recruitment requirements are based on § 36 and § 37 HG NRW (law governing universities in NRW).

The appointment is initially for three years as a temporary civil servant. In the course of the third year, this status will be reviewed and may be extended for a further three years depending on performance. At the end of this six-year assistant professorship at the latest, the tenure track will lead to continued employment as a tenured W2 university professor, provided that the necessary aptitude, competence and academic performance have been demonstrated and that the legal requirements pertaining to § 38 HG NRW are met.

TU Dortmund University strives to increase the number of women in academic research and therefore explicitly encourages women to apply.

TU Dortmund University is an equal opportunity employer and gives preference to candidates with disabilities if equally qualified.

TU Dortmund University supports the compatibility of work and family life and promotes gender equality in science.

Please send your application, including the usual documents (cover letter including research interests, CV, list of publications, overview of teaching experience/held lectures and offered seminars, certificates), by email in one pdf-file to the following address by 29.06.2021

Dean of the Department of Humanities and Theology
Professor Dr. Christoph Schuck
TU Dortmund University
44221 Dortmund – Germany
tel.: +49-231-755-6252
email: christoph.m.schuck@tu-dortmund.de www.ht.tu-dortmund.de