

With 6,300 employees in research, teaching and administration and its unique profile, TU Dortmund University shapes prospects for the future: the interaction between engineering and natural sciences as well as social and cultural studies drives both technological innovations and progress in knowledge and methodology. It is not only the roughly 34,300 students who benefit from this.

The Faculty of Arts and Sports Sciences at TU Dortmund University is seeking to fill the position of a commencing as soon as possible. The successful candidate will represent the field of “Music Theory” in research and teaching.

Professor (W2) in “Music Theory”

TU Dortmund University is seeking an outstanding individual and established researcher in Music Theory with relevant international publications in recognized venues, including those with peer-review. The candidate should also be preferably qualified in artistic work (composition/arrangement) and/or have experience in teaching composition.

Applicants should complement the research activities of the Faculty of Arts and Sports Sciences and contribute to interdisciplinary collaborative research projects within and outside TU Dortmund University. Experience in raising third-party funds is an asset.

An appropriate contribution to the faculty’s curriculum is expected. Applicants will teach the full range of Music Theory on the degree programs: Music Education, Music Journalism and the Master in Cultural Analysis and Cultural Intermediation.

The successful candidate will possess social and leadership skills and be willing to be involved in academic self-governance.

The recruitment requirements are based on § 36 and § 37 HG NRW (law governing universities in NRW).

TU Dortmund University strives to increase the number of women in academic research and teaching and therefore strongly encourages women to apply.

TU Dortmund University is an equal opportunity employer and gives preference to candidates with disabilities if equally qualified.

TU Dortmund University supports the compatibility of work and family life and promotes gender mainstreaming in the university community.
